India is a great country where people speak different languages but the national language is Hindi. India is full of different castes, creeds, religion, and cultures but they live together. That's the reason India is famous for the common saying of "unity in diversity". India is the seventh-largest country in the whole world.

Geography and culture

India has the second-largest population in the world. India is also known as Bharat, Hindustan and sometimes Aryavart. It is surrounded by oceans from three sides which are Bay of Bengal in the east, the Arabian sea in the west and Indian oceans in the south. Tiger is the national animal of India. Peacock is the national bird of India. Mango is the national fruit of India. "Jana Gana Mana" is the national anthem of India. "Vande Mataram" is the national song of India. Hockey is the national sport of India. People of different religions such as Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Islam, Christianity and Judaism live together from ancient times. India is also rich in monuments, tombs, churches, historical buildings, temples, museums, scenic beauty, wildlife sanctuaries, places of architecture and many more. The great leaders and freedom fighters are from India.

Food:

Indian food is a cosmopolitan cuisine that has so many ingredients. It is as diverse as India. India recipes use numerous ingredients, deploy a wide range of food preparation styles, cooking techniques, and culinary presentation. Thus the tastes of some food like salads, sauces, vegetables, meat, desserts vary from region to region.

The Indian flag has tricolours: 1 saffron 2 white 3 green. The first colour that is uppermost colour in the flag which is the saffron colour, stands for purity. The second colour is white and it is the middle colour in the flag and stands for peace. The third colour that is the lowest colour in the flag is the green colour it stands for fertility. The white colour has an Ashoka Chakra of blue color on it. Ashoka Chakra contains twenty-four spokes which are equally divided. India has 29 States and 7 Union territories.

My favourite States from India are as follows -

Madhya Pradesh

Madhya Pradesh is bigger than a foreign (Italy) country and smaller than Oman. It also has tourists attraction for its places. In Madhya Pradesh, you can see temples, lakes, fort, art and architectures, rivers, jungles and many things. you can visit in Indore, Jabalpur, Ujjain, Bhopal, Gwalior and many cities. Khajuraho, Sanchi stupa, Pachmarhi, Kanha national park, Mandu, etc. the places must visit.

Jammu and Kashmir

Jammu and Kashmir are known as heaven on earth we can also call Jammu and Kashmir as tourist paradise. There are many places to visit in Jammu and Kashmir because they have an undisturbed landscape, motorable road, beauty, lying on the banks of river Jhelum, harmony, serenity, temples and many more.

multi-religious society, celebrates holidays and festivals of various religions. Major festivals of various religions include Diwali, Durga, puja, Holi, Ganesh puja, Navaratri, Christmas, Raksha Bhandham etc. are there round the year.

Conclusion

We are proud our cultural distinctiveness and are proud to be the inhabitants of India. It is our duty to maintain its unique features. We have to think beyond the petty interests and work for the broad goals of bringing prosperity and progress in society.

India is a great country having different cultures, castes, creed, religions but still, they live together. India is known for ~~its~~ its heritage, spices and of course, for people who live here. That's the reason India is famous for the common saying of "unity in diversity". India is ~~for~~ also known as the "land of spirituality", philosophy, science and technology.
